Overview

This lecture will help utilize a standardized screening tool to identify and diagnose opioid use disorder (OUD) during pregnancy. Associated comorbid conditions and the impact of OUD on pregnancy will be reviewed. The need for universal screening for substance use disorder (SUD) during pregnancy, examples of screening tools validated in pregnancy, and the recommended treatment of choice will be discussed.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this activity, the participant will be able to:

- Describe the DSM-5 criteria for the diagnosis of opioid use disorder (OUD).
- Describe the impact of OUD on pregnancy and comorbid conditions of OUD that affect pregnancy.
- Identify the screening tools for SUD that have been validated for use in the pregnant population.
- Discuss the recommended treatment options available for OUD in pregnancy.
